ABOUT US

We are Learners, Connectors and Changemakers

At Wellington College China, we offer a pioneering education to serve and help shape a better world. We inspire our children to be the best version of themselves, to take pride in where they come from and to be the change they wish to see in the world.

The Wellington College, United Kingdom (TWC)

Wellington College in England was founded by Queen Victoria in 1859 as a national monument to Britain's most renowned military figure, the Duke of Wellington. Over 160 years later, the College is one of the most respected schools in the United Kingdom and one of its greatest educational institutions – pioneering, innovating, and transforming education for girls and boys.

Wellington College China (WCC)

Wellington College China (WCC) was established in 2009 and is the exclusive partner of The Wellington College (TWC) in China. WCC has established three premium international schools under the Wellington brand, three private bilingual schools and four nurseries in Tianjin, Shanghai, Hangzhou and Nantong. Wellington College international schools teach a curriculum based on the English national curriculum, while bilingual schools combine the best of the British and Chinese education systems for pupils aged 2–18.

Together our schools serve more than 5,000 pupils and employ over 1,200 staff, approximately 40% of whom are expatriates, with the majority being from the UK. Over the past 14 years, WCC has accumulated a wealth of experience in school establishment, campus construction, operation and management, talent development, curriculum design and teaching provision.

School introduction

The Wellington College Hangzhou campus opened in 2018, showcasing a world-class modern facility, educating pupils from age 2 – 18 years old. Our campus is home to three schools, creating a large and caring community which harnesses the diversity of both East and West cultures. Our schools are aligned using traditional Wellington Values to provide an education with academic excellence at its heart, complemented by the best pastoral care and a wide breadth of co-curricular opportunity.

Hiba Academy Hangzhou (Nursery) provides a bilingual Early Years learning environment, developing strong language and communication skills through internationally proven play-based activities.

Wellington College International Hangzhou consists of Primary and Senior Schools offering a uniquely British style curriculum delivering a world-class international education for children of expatriate families.

Hiba Academy Hangzhou is comprised of Primary and Junior High Schools, bringing together the very best of Chinese and British education delivered through a bespoke bilingual learning environment.

Pupils from both the Senior School and Junior High study IGCSE courses, which are globally renowned for quality, rigour and dependability.

Wellington College Hangzhou Sixth Form (WCCH SF) then offers a comprehensive A Level programme, Extended Project Qualification and individual career guidance resulting in a strong pathway to attend the best universities in the UK, USA and worldwide.

Working for Wellington College China

LINE MANAGEMENT

Head of Business and Economics

OBJECTIVES

Wellington College Hangzhou is seeking an experienced and enthusiastic teacher of Business Studies and Economics to work collaboratively as part of our diverse and high achieving business studies and economics team. The business studies and economics teacher will plan and deliver lessons to pupils from a range of age groups, based on the Wellington College philosophy and ethos. The business studies and economics teacher should strive to support each individual pupil's growth and development, encouraging them as Wellingtonians to be inspired, intellectual, independent, individual and inclusive. The teacher must demonstrate an understanding of the wider curriculum and administration needs of the school, and achieve high standards by responding professionally, sensitively and caringly to the needs of the pupils.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

Teaching and Learning

- Contribute to the holistic wellbeing of all pupils and specifically to those assigned to your individual care.
- Make all pupils aware of the Wellington College Mission Statement, Values and Identity base including the model of education, their values, aims, and display them in an innovative and informative fashion in the classroom and adjacent corridors.
- Undertake class management and teach lessons independently.
- Assess regularly the pupils' work by means of formative and formal termly/half-termly assessments, as directed by the Head of School. Communicate regarding any pupil whose progress or behaviour gives cause for concern.
- Monitor and evaluate constantly the effectiveness of your own teaching, maintaining good standards of practice and ensuring progression.
- Participate fully in the Staff Appraisal system, with classroom observation of colleagues and a willingness to be personally observed within the classroom. Submit books, records or planning as required for monitoring by colleagues.
- Be involved in developing, implementing and monitoring all College policies regarding the subject, and to assist in the necessary documentation pertaining to the subject, where required by the Head of School.
- Assist with the resourcing of the subject and work with the Head of School in drawing up the annual order.
- Apply consistently and diligently the rules of the College in order to maintain discipline, standards of dress and to safeguard the happiness, safety and wellbeing of all pupils, to ensure that pupils know, understand and follow the College rules.
- Provide opportunities for the community to be involved in pupils' and setting success.

Home-School Communication

- Make parents feel welcome and build good relationships with parents.
- Introduce information regarding the school English curriculum.
- Collect information of pupils' interests and growth from parents.
- Stimulate pupils' study by making use of parents' strengths.
- Provide consultations and support to parents' enquiries.
- Share pupils' information provided by parents with co-teachers.
- Communicate with parents on a regular basis, as directed by the Head of School.
- Attend Parents' meetings as required and provide accurate, honest information regarding the progress of individuals in English.
- Report to the parents in the form of regular written reports, and when additionally required by the department head and Head of School.

Professional Integrity

- Be positive and build good relationships with colleagues.
 - Complete tasks assigned on time.
 - Provide cover for absent colleagues as and when deemed necessary by the department head and Head of School.
 - Play a full role in the weekly extra-curricular activities programme. The programme will take place outside of the prescribed teaching hours, as directed by the head of department and Head of School.
 - Make a significant contribution to College assemblies, and newsletters, and by so doing highlight the work carried out by pupils in the subject.
 - Promote an ethos of equality and equal opportunities for all pupils within the setting.
 - Protect privacy of pupils, pupils' families and colleagues.
 - Maintain the highest standards of care, child protection and safeguarding at all times.
 - Emphasise the importance of safety and of safe methods of working in the classroom, and indeed in all areas of the College and the curriculum.
- Communicate to the pupils that they must take a responsible attitude to equipment and materials, with which they have been provided, and that they will be punished and possibly charged for damage inflicted upon College property.

- Carry out duties in the College as required and timetabled by the Head of School. This will include playtime supervision, lunchtime supervision and after-school supervision.
- Maintain, with the rest of the teaching staff, high standards of conduct both in and out of the classroom. Act always in a way that conforms to the College ethos and values, and is in the best interests of the pupils.
- Set high expectations and standards for the achievement of pupils and your personal performance.
- Contribute as fully as possible to the annual calendar of College events, in whatever way possible.

Professional Development

- Be familiar with the recent development of IGCSE and A Level teaching theory and practice.
- Improve yourself through continuous study and be willing to try new ideas.
- Be willing to accept others' good ideas and share your opinions.
- Frequently reflect on your work and share your experience with the international teaching partner and other colleagues.
- Support the College Development Plan generally and in so far as it relates to English subject.
- Attend and participate fully in Wellington College Staff Development and INSET programmes.
- Attend staff meetings and briefings as and when required by the head of department, and Head of School.

BASIC QUALIFICATION

- Hold a Bachelor's degree related to your subject specialism
- Fully qualified as a teacher (holding teaching certificates such as PGCE, QTS etc)
- Fluent English, spoken and written.

EXPERIENCE

A minimum of 2 years of teaching experience within your subject specialism at a high performing school.

EXPERTISE

- Excellent subject knowledge.
- Prior experience of teaching IGCSE and A Level courses in your subject specialism is essential.

PREFERRED APTITUDES

- Be able to assess pupils' interests, needs and developments.
- Be able to develop curriculum.
- Open, proactive, patient and caring.
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office.
- International and bilingual school working experience is preferred.
- Cross-cultural working experience is preferred.

As an employer of choice, Wellington College China is committed to making professional learning and personal development central to its ethos and approach. WCC fully recognises its responsibilities for safeguarding children. Our safeguarding policy applies to all staff, governors and volunteers working in the Group.

从心, 致远。 Be You. Be More.
